

Dustin Worthington "I Love Cows" Essay Contest

Application Deadline - March 7
Award Presentation – April 4

ONLINE APPLICATION INFORMATION <https://bit.ly/24llovecows>

Completed Scholarship On-line Application Includes the following:

- A. Full name
- B. Telephone
- C. Complete Mailing Address
- D. E-mail Address
- E. Name of parent(s), guardian(s) and their employer
- F. Membership 4-H or FFA
- G. Residence: Farm, Out in the county, Town/Subdivision
- H. How do you plan to use this animal?      Breed      Show
- I. What breed would you prefer?

Write and paste the essay that includes answers to the following (minimum of 1 page, maximum of 2 pages):

- A. Briefly describe yourself, hobbies, family, 4-H/FFA membership/activities, personal goals after high school.
- B. Why do you want to own a cow?
- C. What care do you plan to provide the cow (facilities, feed, etc.)
- D. What do you hope to learn from this project?
- E. How do you plan to use this animal (show or breed for herd and please explain).
- F. Please send this link <https://bit.ly/recommendcows> to three individuals to complete online recommendation form. Try to avoid having relatives give recommendations. One should be from your County Extension Agent or FFA Advisor. Others can be personal friend, employer, teacher or anyone other than family.

LINK TO RECOMMENDATION FORM

Winners will be notified prior to the awards ceremony.

Questions regarding this program please contact:

~Dena Worthington, Dustin's Mother, 859-612-7260

~Dana Anderson, Mercer County Extension Agent for 4-H Youth Development 859-734-4378

Dustin Worthington “I Love Cows” Essay Contest

Application Deadline - March 7
Award Presentation – April 4

GENERAL INFORMATION:

A memorial award has been established in Memory of Dustin Worthington. Dustin worked in the cattle industry, until his death on April 4, 2000. Dustin’s main interest in life was working with cattle. The award established is a heifer calf that is presented to a 4-H or FFA member. The purpose of the program is to share the passion Dustin had for working with cattle. The goal is for youth to develop their heifer and to potentially start their own herd. Someday become a profitable business that will aid in paying for education or starting his or her own herd. Each year the awards are presented on April 4th. Current winners and past winners are encouraged but not required to give back to the program by donating the first-born heifer to continue the program for future years.

Rules:

- A. Youth must be active participants of 4-H or FFA to participate.
- B. Statewide Awards - Any youth in KY 4-H and/or FFA programs may apply with the exception of counties that have an ongoing county contest. In order to start an ongoing county contest, a donor must be secured. Large farms in your area may want to become involved. Please contact us for more information.
- C. Youth from all Counties in Kentucky are eligible to compete.
- D. Participants who win may not apply for future awards.
- E. Forms must be completed in the participants’ own handwriting or typed.
- F. All participants and their families are invited to the Awards Presentation on April 4th at 6:00 PM at the Mercer County Extension Office at 1007 Lexington Rd., Harrodsburg, KY. Winners will be notified prior to the awards ceremony. Winners will be presented with a plaque. Winners are responsible for arranging the delivery of the animal.
- G. A counties donor may require the winner to donate an animal back to the program, a chain heifer.

Anyone who has an interest in the cattle industry, 4-H or FFA is asked to make a contribution to the fund.

Contributions to the Memorial Fund please mail to:
Dustin Worthington “I Love Cows”
Memorial Fund, 436 Arrowhead Road, Harrodsburg, Kentucky 40330